

SPECTRUM MIAMI

Contemporary Meets Extraordinary At This Five-Day Fine Art Experience From Dec. 3-7, 2014

TEXT Kim Mosley

Inspired by the dynamic art scene in South Florida, Spectrum Miami plays host to an international slate of artists and gallery owners for a five-day fine art experience from Dec. 3-7, 2014 in the Wynwood Arts District — the heart of Midtown Miami.

CEO of Redwood Media Group, Eric Smith (shown above left), brings together international art collectors, dealers and curators at Spectrum Miami. Here, in an elegant, gallery-style exhibition space, seasoned and emerging artists showcase a dynamic mix of celebrated works. For more information, visit www.spectrum-miami.com. ♦

ABOVE: Artist Gordon Huether displays a piece from his "Heimat Series II" collection inspired by characters in The Struwwelpeter, a series of German fairy tales related to Huether when he was a boy.

ABOVE: From his Abstract Topophilia® series, artist Ben Joyce's bold Coachella Valley Gold depicts the love of place with pulsing pieces, shaped edges and cutouts that expand the painting beyond its boundaries.
