We know you have a lot of options when it comes to where to showcase your work during Miami Art Week. But there are (at least) three reasons why you should apply to exhibit at Spectrum Miami Dec. 5-9, 2018.

1. We're Back in the Wynwood

Spectrum Miami is moving back to Miami's artsiest 'hood for the first time since 2015 and is taking over the iconic Mana Wynwood. An anchor of the Wynwood Arts District thriving artistic and cultural scenes, the Mana Wynwood offers the opportunity to make some exciting updates to the show, including easy access to the hottest galleries, trendiest bars, and best restaurants in Miami, not to mention an on-site restaurant, full HVAC, restrooms, and paved parking. Plus, its proximity to the Miami International Airport, I-95, and all of Miami's most culturally influential neighborhoods-Downtown Miami, the Design District, Miami Beach-makes Mana Wynwood the most desirable location for Spectrum Miami 2018.

2. You Can't Deny Spectrum's ALLURE

Spectrum Miami 2018 events and programming will be informed by our theme: [ALLURE]-the undeniable power of contemporary and modern art to captivate, seduce, and charm buyers, collectors, and dealers who love their work. Don't pass up five days of fine art, live music, entertainment, and access to tens of thousands of high-net-worth collectors.

3. We're Here to Help You Through the Process

Give us a call with your questions-or meet the Miami Art Week team in person! Join us from 5-8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 27, at the Catch Grill & Bar in the Miami Marriott Biscayne Bay for an invite-only gathering of gallery owners, artists, and other art industry professionals. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be there for your enjoyment.

Apply to exhibit so you can experience five unforgettable days of cutting-edge art, entertainment, special events, and-most importantly-sales, commissions, and relationships that last a lifetime. We can't wait to see you there!
