The ultimate destination for today's contemporary and fine art world takes over Wynwood with two shows under one roof inside the Convention Center together for the first year

Spectrum Miami and Red Dot Miami announce curatorial themes for 2019

Miami, FL – September 10th, 2019: Redwood Media Group, the nation's leader in exhibitions and event production, media, and marketing for the global fine art community, has announced its return to Wynwood Arts District and the permanent bricks-and-mortar home for both of its it's flagship art shows that remain two of the longest running fairs during Miami Art Week.

Spectrum Miami and Red Dot Miami will return to Mana Wynwood, with both fairs now located inside the Convention Center for the very first time – offering the only “Two Shows Under One Roof” and new world-class experience for both exhibitors and art enthusiasts during this year's Miami Art Week, taking place December 4—8, 2019. Both shows will cover more than 100,000 square feet of indoor exhibition space and be even more accessible for visitors on foot and by car, all within walking distance from Wynwood's trendiest restaurants, bars and retail boutiques.

“We're pleased to continue our unique alliance with Mana Wynwood during this year's Miami Art Week,” says Eric Smith, president of Redwood Media Group. “Last year, we returned to Wynwood Arts District for the first time since 2015, which proved to be an overwhelming success and marked a new chapter in the evolution of Spectrum Miami and Red Dot Miami. With both shows now completely indoors, forming a new and improved layout, aesthetic and functionality, both exhibitors and attendees alike can look forward to an unprecedented level of luxury over the five days. We're very excited to unveil our new look and elevated art fair experience.”
